

I CLAIM

1. A high resolution optical imaging system comprising:

more than two optical sensors spaced in a non-uniform manner, each having an aperture of about a meter or less, and each producing an output; and

5 an infrastructure for relaying outputs from each of said sensors to a data processing system.

2005-02-06 14:55:00